Atlantic Canada's Leading Business Magazine

Atlantic Business wins big at Atlantic Journalism Awards; N.S. staffer honoured by Atlantic Magazines Association

(July, 2011, St. John's, NL) Atlantic Business Magazine's editorial team has won two gold and two silver awards at this year's Atlantic Journalism Awards.

Contributing editor Alec Bruce took top honours in both the Commentary and Best Magazine Article categories for, respectively, "Wising up to our energy future" and "Dream Weaver." The latter profiles Brad LeBlanc, a 21-year-old whiz kid who launched his event planning business by landing Sir Richard Branson as the keynote speaker at his inaugural event.

Editor Dawn Chafe won silver in the Commentary category for "Time to fish or cut bait" while associate editor Rob Antle was recognized with silver in the Business Reporting category for "Silver anniversary for black gold." The article was written while he worked for St. John's-based daily, the Telegram.

In other award-winning news, Sharon Resky – Atlantic Business Magazine's senior corporate account executive in Nova Scotia – has been named Volunteer of the Year by the Atlantic Magazines Association.
